The Pacific Nortwest Aerospace Alliance is having its annual [conference] [2] starting February 9, 2009 in Lynnwood Washington. On the second day, 2/10/2009 at 1:15p, I will be delivering an abbreviated version of the Personal Excellence [workshop] [3]. It's a very good deal, for $25 you'll get introduced to all of the topics we cover in more detail in the full-day workshop and walk away with the same workbook. So if you're in town and have some time Tuesday afternoon, please [join] [1] me for the class. It should be lots of fun.
