High Performing Teams require High Performing People... Build stronger, more effective people! Here's How...

Ceptara's Personal Excellence Workshop ignites people's personal passion and provides a framework and method for them to achieve what matters most.

The workshop focuses on a three step process:

1. Changing My Perspective - understanding what motivates me and taking charge of my actions and my time.
2. Articulating My Goals - identify what I'm trying to achieve and the work necessary to attain my end game.
3. Managing the Everyday Chaos - embrace the FocusMe for Excellence™ [\[model\]](#) [1] to manage to zero inbox and create action focused on achieving my project's deliverables - which leads to achieving my goals.
