About Ceptara

Established in 2002 and headquartered in the Greater Seattle Washington area, Ceptara® is a private, employee owned business focused on providing management consulting, coaching, training and tools to organizations and knowledge workers to help them achieve their goals effectively.

Our Values

- Integrity | Always meet our commitments
- Demonstrated Excellence | Our actions define our character
- Service | Provide for each other, our customers and community
- Balance | A healthy team is an excellent team

We are driven by our values and hand pick our people [1] based on their experience, capabilities and alignment to our culture, and that makes a good team.

Our team members are all Lean Six Sigma experts and/or Project Managers certified by industry leading organizations. Our clients understand what to expect before we start and mutual understanding makes a solid foundation.
