

2014 WA State Lean Transformation Conference

Mon, 09/08/2014 - 15:35 — Chris Event Date: Tue, 10/21/2014 - 11:00 - 17:00
Location: Greater Tacoma Convention & Trade Center, Tacoma WA

Ceptara's founder, Chris Lindstrom [1] will be presenting in the 11:00a and 3:45p breakouts:

Lean - Why is it Important & How Does it Work?

Lean can be an integral part of a continuous improvement minded culture. Learn how Lean fits into the “way of getting things done”. We will talk about the origins and principles of Lean, how Lean complements other continuous improvement methods, and the importance of the scientific method for systematically evaluating, innovating and improving the “way” we do business. We will use quick exercises, videos and discussion for an engaging conversation that will leave you excited and energized.

Conference Details

Dates: October 21-22, 2014

Location: Greater Tacoma Convention Center, 1500 Broadway, Tacoma, WA

The purpose of the third annual Washington State Government Lean Transformation Conference, hosted by Results Washington, Office of the Governor, is to provide ideas and inspiration about the application of Lean to government operations. Attendees will have the opportunity to deepen their understanding of Lean principles and tools by attending keynote addresses from John Shook and Natalie Sayer, networking with other professionals, attending breakout sessions.

Cost: One canned food item - if you can be in the Tacoma area in October, don't miss this conference.
